George Wythe House in Williamsburg

George Wythe—patriot, lawyer, educator, chancellor—was one of the foremost Americans of his day.

As a burgess, the Clerk of the House of Burgesses, the Mayor of Williamsburg, the Speaker of the House of Delegates, and the Judge of Chancery Court, he was highly honored by his fellow countrymen and universally respected and beloved. He was among Virginia's signers of the Declaration of Independence and America's first law professor at the College of William and Mary. Wythe's distinguished personality is characterized by the integrity, benevolence, and virtue he used to help his country lay the foundations of government.

His home, the famed hipped-roofed house, 200 years old, is still standing in its original splendor. This spacious, but simple house, is a typical Virginia colonial dwelling, and, it is indeed symbolic of the humble Wythe.

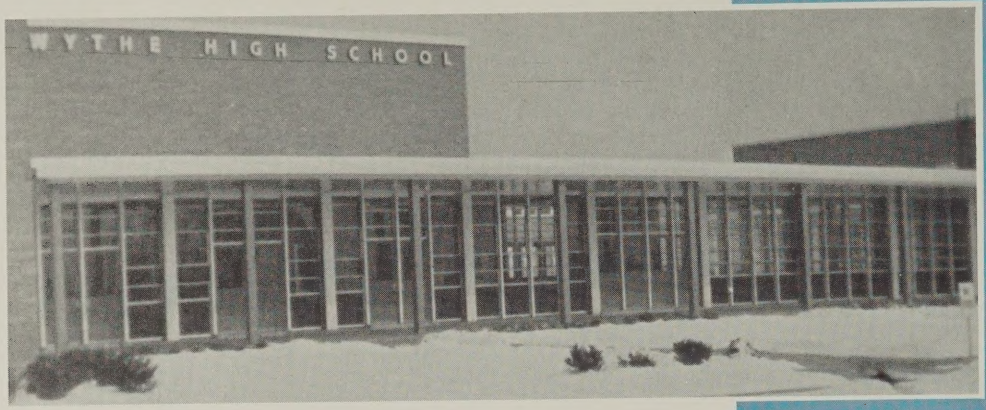
George Wythe High in Richmond

Embodying the ideals of the man and the statue of the house, George Wythe High School began in 1956 when a committee of citizens, teachers, and the students met to discuss what was wanted in the new school. The land was purchased and the architect drew the plans for the school in 1958; and in 1959, actual construction on the building began. The $3,078,533.89 building was completed and ready for occupancy in 1960.

The school is modern in all aspects, offering every modern facility found in any secondary institution of education in the United States. Some of the more unique features of the school plant are three multi-purpose rooms, two shops, showers and team rooms for each sex, a nurses' suite, three cafeterias, three military cadet rooms, and many other conveniences which add to the modern plan of the school. Also George Wythe is fortunate to be the first school on the East Coast from Virginia to Florida to have an IBM installation.

In September, 1960, 1,536 students entered George Wythe and are beginning to build a tradition and spirit which will match the pattern of integrity, benevolence, and humility set by George Wythe, the man.

At the Foothills Climbing . . .



During the school year of 1960-1961, the doors of the new George Wythe High School opened to 1,536 students, 72 teachers, 10 administrators and secretaries. The modern facilities and decorations provide excellent opportunities for work, recreation and maturity. The daily routine of school life moves forward; each student plans and sets his goals—chooses his hill to climb. As a student body and as members of classes, organizations, and teams, students of the new school find themselves at many foothills. Through the attainment of daily goals, lasting goals are reached—scholarship, enlightenment, fellowship, integrity, sportsmanship, school spirit, and public relations.

Scholarship Our Goal

Our faculty and administrators are the foundation of George Wythe's massive structure. They are the architects building in the students' knowledge—both academic and practical—which will be the basis of our education. Patiently they provide a beginning for broadening our concepts and knowledge in order that we may procure a mature outlook on the future. Our progress in education determines the degree to which this world is able to progress. Only in this way, with the combined efforts of the faculty and students, are we able to accomplish a greater degree of scholarship.

School Board Foresees High Ideals

We expect George Wythe to take its place quickly among the top level high schools of the state and nation. Already there is evidence that parents, pupils, and members of the staff share this same desire. This goal will require a school spirit that is alive, eager, purposeful, and rewarding.

In developing early traditions and standards for the George Wythe High School that are in harmony with worthy goals, it may be well to remember the following statement made by Thomas Jefferson about George Wythe, the man for whom the school is named: "His virtue was of the purest tint, his integrity inflexible, and his justice exact: Of warm patriotism, and devoted as he was to liberty and the natural and equal rights of man, he might truly be called the Cato of his country."

Principals, Staff, IBM Guide School

Directing George Wythe through its initial year has been the chief concern of Mr. Oscar W. Fary, Jr. this year.

A native of Gloucester, Virginia, Mr. Fary has a M.S. Ed. from the University of Richmond and has served since 1952 in the Richmond City School System.

As this school is in the embryo of its development, Mr. Fary considers the greatest objective of his office to be the evolution of conscientious, accomplished, and scholarly students through the use of the new, remarkable, educational facilities at George Wythe.

Guidance Services Are Diversified

The Guidance Department offers a series of services to the student which have as their objectives the fullest possible realization by each student of his varied talents and potentialities.

Some of these services include counseling on matters of better self-understanding and adjustment, vocational and educational planning, orientation assistance both for new students and those leaving, organization and interpretation of the testing program.

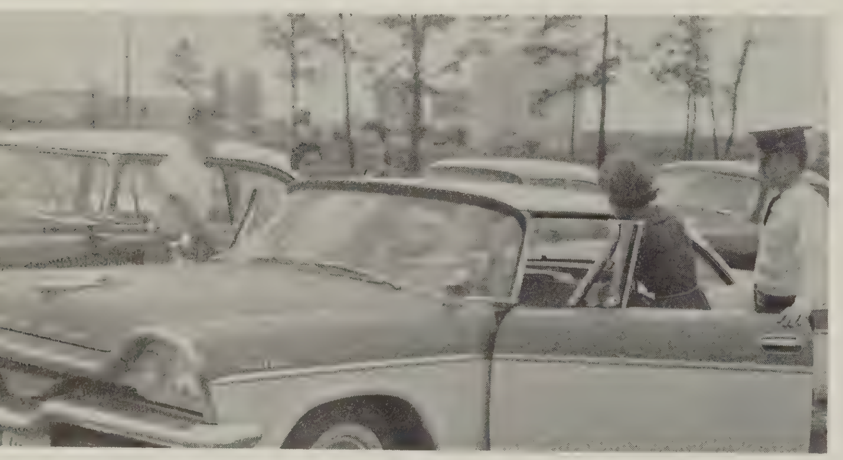
Reading, Writing, Speaking Develop



Lawrence Boyce, Judy Pollard, Deanna Tow, Winnie Woodson, and Norman Cox leave for District C Forensic Meet.

Through reading, writing, speaking, and listening, the English department seeks to teach students to express themselves in oral and written composition and to think individually. Recognition of ability in speaking came when contestants in the district forensics won "distinguished" rating for THE DEATH OF THE HIRED MAN, Deanna Tow's prose reading, and Winnie Woodson's poetry reading. Ability in writing was evidenced when the creative writing booklet won a "superior" rating.

In this department students are grouped on three levels according to ability, remedial reading is offered lower classmen, several junior class teachers pioneered in team teaching, and the three publications are produced.

Students, Teachers — Democracy

Student participation, civic leaders' contributions, and teacher direction exemplify the democratic way of life in the social sciences. This department has a well balanced program emphasizing the old and the new. Knowledge of the development of the American Heritage and the history of the Old World builds an understanding of peoples and problems in the modern world. An appreciation of what has been, an awareness of what is, a dedication to the concept that a knowledge of the truth is essential to freedom expresses the objective and the method of the social sciences.

Science Work in Interesting Areas

The modern planning of equipment and space in the science department provides many work areas. There is a multi-purpose room, two general science rooms, an animal room, a chemistry laboratory and lecture room, two sun decks, a physics lecture and laboratory room, and three preparatory rooms.

A co-curricular activity group interested in electronics has met regularly for study and work. Several members have secured amateur radio licenses and a station has been licensed and established.

The department sponsored a Science Fair in the spring which was attended by more than one thousand people.

Language Study Practical and Cultural

Students use facilities in language lab.

The Foreign Language Department of George Wythe High School believes that the study of at least one of the languages offered in its curriculum, namely Latin, French, Spanish, German, and Russian, is highly desirable.

Practical and beneficial advantages may be gained by a working knowledge of a foreign language, and the general cultural benefits to be derived are rewarding. The building of language power results in the fullest enjoyment of life.

Mrs. Thelma B. Hutton, head of language department, helps Jean Gandy put finishing touches on showcase.

Talents Unfold Through Creativeness

The Art Department aims to broaden the interests and to seek out the abilities of all its students through artistic expression. By this means art contributes to the understanding of the students and increases the desire for cultural activity. Through the development of skills, imagination, and good taste, concepts become more stable by increased power of visualization; the mind opens to new possibilities, and the student extends his creativeness. The individual becomes more self-sufficient as his talents unfold.

Music Stresses Skill, Teamwork

Mr. Sica conducts the fifth period orchestra class.

"Teamwork is an important part of music," say Mr. Yeager and Mr. Sica.

A chance to learn the basic skills of music and to work in a teamlike atmosphere is offered to any interested and talented pupil at George Wythe. Along with skills, music fosters an appreciation for culture in students by exposure to many types of rhythms and pitch notations. Students are given an opportunity to conduct solo singing and to perform in public.

In addition, students are provided with a vocation for a full and interesting life.

Fine Points about Family and Food

The home economics courses are planned to meet the needs of all high school students, non-college and college-bound students. They offer experiences in home care of the sick, home furnishing, interior decoration, clothing and textiles, foods and nutrition and housing, child development and family living.

Play school is an interesting area in this department. Children are brought by their parents to attend a half day. The children are given an opportunity to draw, play, and meet other children their own age. In this way, home economics students get experience as they learn the fine points of child care.

Machinery Aids Amateurs

The handsome new machinery, spacious area, and modern design of the George Wythe shop enables students in industrial arts to develop skill in handling instruments, tools, and machines as well as to strengthen habits of orderly procedure, safety, and inquisitiveness.

Industrial arts students work in these fields: drafting, wood working, plastics, metal working, graphic arts, power mechanics, leatherworking, electricity and electronics, ceramics, and textiles.

The total program allows the students to gain newer and broader concepts in the use of techniques, materials and processes.

Modern machinery adds to the development of skills among industrial arts students.

Students Train for Business Careers

The Business Department of George Wythe is supplied with up-to-date equipment, making possible a modern and progressive department. Courses offered consist of two years of bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, and one year of clerical practice, VOT, business training, and business arithmetic.

The department aims to provide the students with a business education for personal use and to supply the local business organizations with highly-trained and professional-minded employees. This is being accomplished because each instructor has a personal interest in the student's learning and employment.

Students Learn Saleable Skills at V.M.I.

Shops for the Trade Preparatory Program are located in the Virginia Mechanics Institute Building and are an extension of shops situated at George Wythe. This program is designed for young people who see graduation from high school as the terminal point of formal education. These courses allow students to acquire saleable skills with which they enter and successfully pursue occupations in drafting, automobile mechanics, machine shop practice, electricity and electronics. Students enrolled in this program report to the V.M.I. Building in the morning and return to school later in the afternoon for their other classes.

Our spacious bright library is centrally located in the school, making it easily accessible to all departments.

While we began with a limited number of books, the collection has grown during the year and will continue to grow.

The purpose of the library is to be flexible in its program of services so that all phases of the school program are enriched.

Physical Activities Emphasize Fitness

A new physical plant is the pride of students in the gym classes. Classes are conducted on the basis of physical activity and health information. Physical activity classes include body mechanics, recreational games, physical fitness, folk dancing, co-recreational activities, major and minor sports, and apparatus. Health information classes provide students with additional courses in First Aid and Driver Education. In addition, the school nurse serves the health needs of all. The future holds advanced physical classes with greater carry-over value in adult life.

Cadet Corps Mission Is Six-Fold

The mission of the National Defense Cadet Corps of George Wythe High School is six-fold. The first is to teach the student his obligations as a citizen of the United States of America. The second is to develop leadership. Other missions are to instill habits of courtesy, orderliness, and precision; to develop moral as well as physical attributes, and to teach the student respect for and obedience to properly constituted authority. The final mission is to emphasize the importance of maintaining a good academic standing.

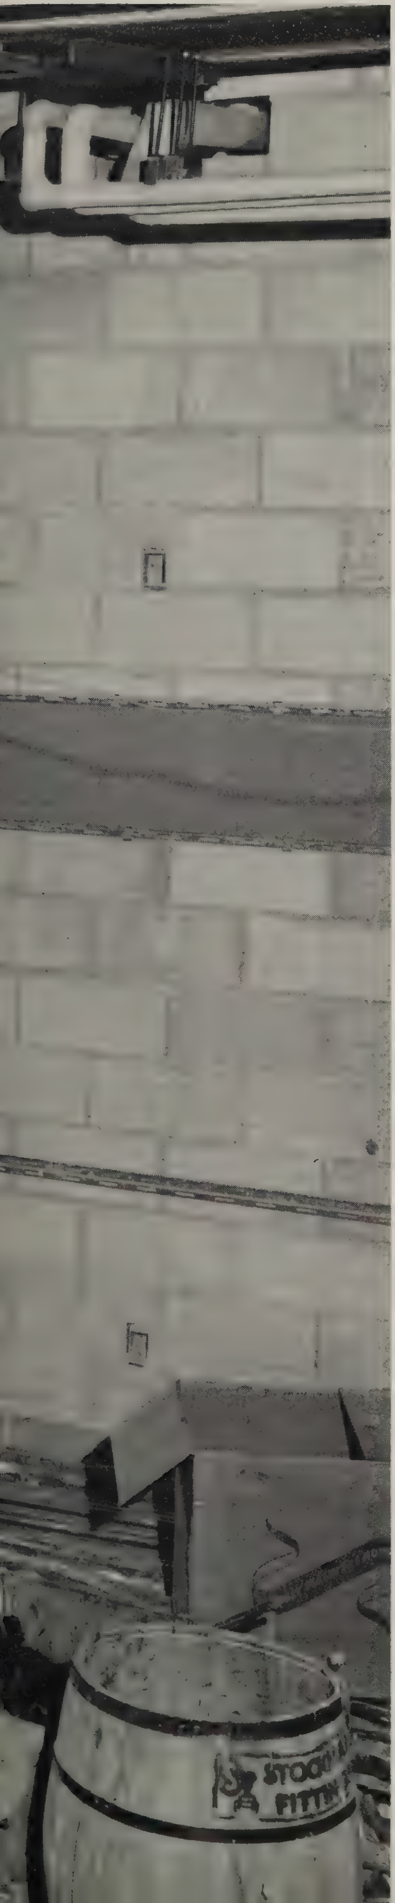
Enlightenment Our Goal



In order that we might better prepare ourselves for a more abundant and significant life, we must strive throughout our entire school career to obtain the knowledge, understanding, skills, and character traits necessary to become better citizens of tomorrow. By working to our highest capacity throughout our high school life, we will enable ourselves to achieve the utmost satisfaction in present, as well as future goals. By enlightening ourselves now concerning our shortcomings and needs, we will be able to clearly lay a firm foundation on which our future happiness and success may be built.

Fellowship Our Goal

Teamwork is a necessity to achieve a successful organization. The participants must work together, have confidence in each other, and faith in their leaders in order to reach their ultimate goal, a successful club. Partnership is essential in all school activities. Our future relationships in life are developed in the roots of fellowship which we achieve through unity in organizations.

Garnett Walden, Carolyn Coleman, business manager, Mr. John Arnold, sponsor, and Faye Kite, editor, discuss plans for the CHANCELLOR.

Staff Completes

An enterprising Chancellor staff decided to produce an unusual book for the first edition of the George Wythe yearbook. Developing a theme of climbing, they hoped to present the effort and thought that have gone into the organization of the Southside's new school. So that all activities could be given equal coverage, an August delivery date was decided upon.

Tireless and enthusiastic staff members attracted the attention of all who passed 232 as copy, pictures, layout, and file cards gradually took form. After school hours and week-end hours were added to the two daily staff periods; the final shipment of copy sheets was made the last day of school.

SCA Adopts First Constitution

Nineteen homeroom presidents from the eleventh and twelfth grades serve the S.C.A.

There are eighteen homeroom presidents from the eighth, ninth, and tenth grades.

The most far reaching accomplishment of the S.C.A. Committee was the writing of the constition. This work started last summer when a planning committee composed of representatives from the schools which would make up George Wythe initiated the school's government.

The first objective was selecting school colors—red, white, and blue, and the athletic nickname—Bulldogs.

Activities attended by the Executive Committee have been the District S.C.A. Convention, the Foreign Forum, Group I District Convention, State S.C.A. Convention, and Leadership Workshop held at George Wythe.

Announcements made in the morning by Joe Sorrow was one of the many projects sponsored by the S.C.A.

STATESMAN Appears in Two Editions

The first literary magazine of George Wythe High School, the STATESMAN, appeared January 20, followed by the second issue, May 15, 1961. Published by the students, the first issue contained pictures of all the "Firsts" at G.W., the winners of the literary contest, two songs and an art section.

Besides conducting the literary contest, the STATESMAN Staff sold George Wythe stationery to the students and faculty.

As a future goal, the staff plans to publish three issues next year—one in the fall, winter and spring.

STATESMAN EDITORS: Jeanne Hubbard, Mrs. Frances Wimer, Anna Brown, Judy Pollard, Mrs. Henrietta Ellwanger, and Mary Ellen Hyler.

Mr. Sheridan, Douglas Hackney, Pat Ragland, and Mr. Randolph Cheatham prepare for STATESMAN subscription drive.

The business and literary staffs worked together to produce THE WYTHE LEDGER on the third Friday of each month, except during exams. A party given in January honored the officers for the first semester and introduced the officers for the second semester. Ten representatives went to the newspaper clinic held at the University of Richmond. Two staff members and Mrs. Gibson also attended the Southern Interscholastic Press Association Convention held at Washington and Lee University in Lexington. Although the primary purpose of the paper is to inform the students, the staff members gain valuable skills which will be useful in later life.

SPRING STAFF: Linda Cash, Sandra Williams, Theresa Albright, Chuck Macfarlane, Eugene Rawlings, Diane Cox, Jerry Reid, Kathie Fife, Linda Roan, Peggy Lett, Jack Kibler, Sandra Moody, Tina Pedersen.

F.B.L.A. Members Fulfill Motto —

Future Business Leaders of America is an organization made up of students taking one or more business subjects. The members learn much about business, and about proper conduct in the business world.

Annually, the chapters from this region meet at Longwood College and compete in various contests. The winners go to Richmond and Washington, D. C.

Through the efforts of the members, the FBLA is able to fulfill its motto, "Serving, Education, Program."

Vocational Office Training is a coordinated work experience program offered students enrolled in the Business Department who are interested in learning how to operate many office machines.

V.O.T. offers specialized pre-employment training. It gives the senior student an opportunity to "try out" in a real job situation and saves time in discovering one's real interest and ability.

Library Staff Serves Voluntarily

The Library Staff is made up of students who are interested in library work. The voluntary student members serve before, during, and after school. Their jobs range from shelving books to assisting behind the desk.

The main responsibility of the staff is to help the librarians in maintaining the facilities of the library.

Future Nurses Expore Medical Careers

The Future Nurses Club enables its members to broaden their knowledge in the many fields of nursing and medicine. Through many interesting activities, they see and explore these different fields. For instance, many girls do volunteer work at various hospitals.

Along with the Women's Auxiliary of the Richmond Academy of Medicine, the club tries to stimulate enthusiasm among students toward choosing a medical career.

Mrs. Staples shows nurse doll to Martha Hancock, Jeannette Ellis, Linda Marshall, and Sharon Eubank.

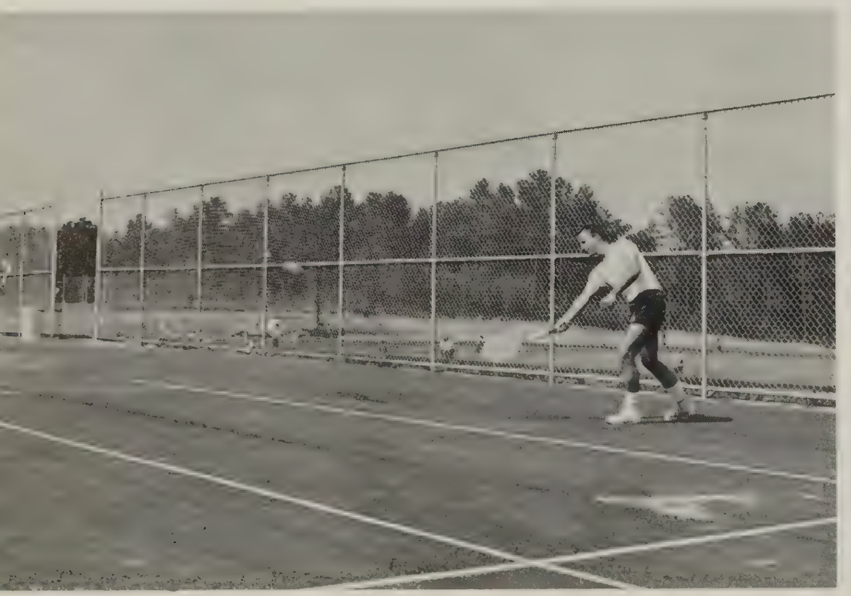
Key Club Has Outstanding Reputation



Mr. John Waters, faculty adviser of the Key Club, keeps physically fit by playing tennis.

The Key Club International in Chicago, Illinois, organized the Key Club of George Wythe High School and granted its charter on November 11, 1960. The Kiwanis Club, which has chapters all over the country, is the parent-sponsoring organization.

Students from the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades who are nominated as a result of the recommendations of teachers and other members of the faculty comprise the membership of the Key Club. To be eligible a student must be in the upper third of his class and outstanding in character and leadership.

The welfare and well-being of the school and community are the main interests of the Key Club.

Hi-Y Fosters Christian Character, Ideals

The George Wythe Hi-Y aims to create, maintain, and to extend throughout the home, school, and community the high ideals of Christian character.

As projects this year, the Hi-Y undertook to sell candy and George Wythe pennants. Also, during the Christmas season, the Hi-Y placed a decorated Christmas tree in the main court which brightened the Christmas spirit at George Wythe.

Although the members have many social functions, the Hi-Y is fundamentally a service organization with projects that are designed for the betterment of the school and the community.

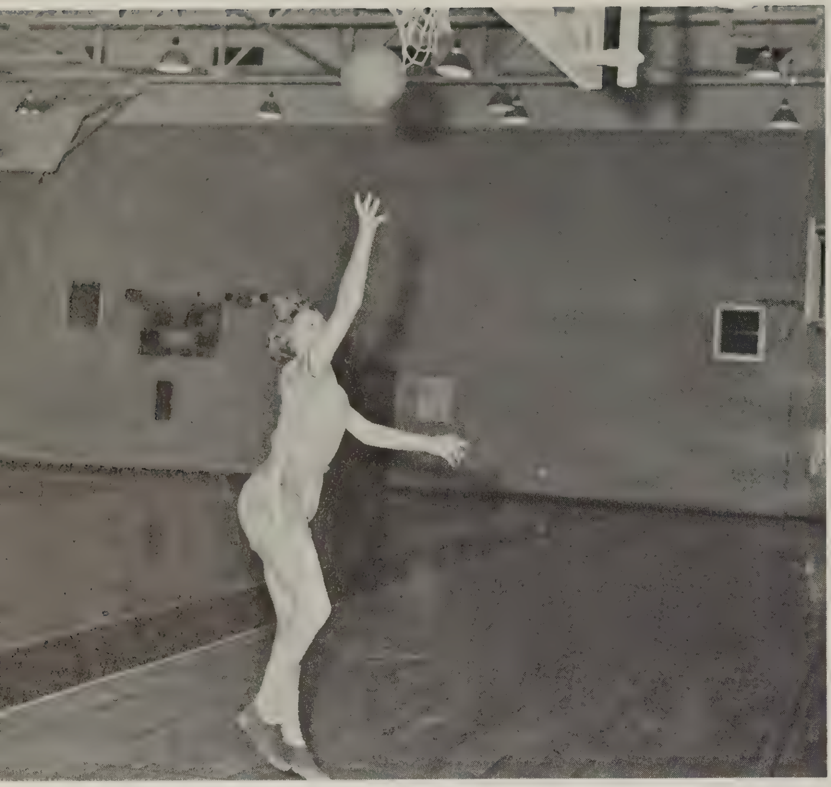
Mr. Cheatham and Tubby Leviner decorate a Christmas tree in the center court.

GAA Promotes

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization for girls who are interested in establishing sportsmanship and creating an interest in sports activities.

The G.A.A. sponsors bowling, basketball, tennis, horseback riding, and other similar activities for its members. These activities help the girls achieve points for awards that are offered.

This year as a project, the organization presented a highly successful talent show with the theme "Remember When." In co-operation with the S.C.A., it sponsored the girls' student-faculty basketball game.



Nancy Moorefield practices lay-ups.

Participation in Girls' Athletics

Sylvia Garrison, Cleve Crooks, and Judy Loer bring back the gay '20's in the Talent Show.

Tommy Mustian, Buddy Booth, Winnie Woodson, Linda Roan, Ray Snellings, Anne Lewis, and Tubby Leviner sing for the Talent Show.

D.E. Prepares Students for Careers

The Distributive Education Department operates a co-operative training program designed to prepare students for careers in the field of distribution. Class instruction covers human relations, salesmanship, advertising, display, and management. The students leave school at noon to work in a business where they apply principles learned in class.

Art Club Promotes Creative Expression

The first art show, a tremendous success, was sponsored by the Fine Arts Club.

The George Wythe Fine Arts Club satisfies the desires of creative individuals as they move forward toward the future. The group is self-directing with the purpose serving as a guide. This club is open to any student who accepts its purpose and works to improve the Arts of the future. Certain projects will be undertaken each year to keep the Arts before the eyes of George Wythe High School. The purpose of the club is to promote creative artistic expression for all individuals, and to advance the arts in their lives so they will become an integral part of life.

Choir Entertains Students, Faculty

The George Wythe Concert Choir presents vocal programs for the entertainment and enjoyment of the student body and faculty of George Wythe High School and offers an opportunity for persons with talented voices to develop their abilities.

During the year, the choir has sung at the dedication of the school, at assembly programs, and at graduation. It successfully presented the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert. Six of the choir members also represented George Wythe at the All-State Chorus held at the Mosque.

Service Is Red Cross Aim.

The Junior Red Cross aims to promote better understanding of all people, to foster good will internationally, to raise the level of health and safety habits, and to develop service training.

Nearly all students, by voluntary contributions, enrolled. Funds were deposited with the Richmond Chapter and money was sent to the American Red Cross Childrens' Fund which provides aid for children all over the world. Boxes were packed for Chilean Disaster Relief and a carton of articles for Christmas stockings was sent to McGuire Hospital.

On Recognition Day in February six girls received certificates for twenty-five or more hours of service.

Quill and Scroll Charters 31 Members

Members are initiated by Thomas Jefferson students into the newly established George Wythe chapter of the Quill and Scroll.

Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. It was founded April 10, 1926, by a group of high school advisers for the purpose of "rewarding and encouraging individual achievement in journalism and creative writing."

Having met the requirements, George Wythe received its charter on April 26, 1961, when 31 charter members were initiated. Each member must be a junior or senior in the upper third of his class, must do superior work in some phase of journalism in school publications, must be recommended by the faculty adviser, and approved by the Executive Secretary of the Society.

Honor Society Taps 23 Students

Twenty-three juniors and seniors became charter members of the Oscar W. Fary Chapter of the National Honor Society, named in honor of the first principal of George Wythe. These students were chosen on the basis of high scholarship, constructive leadership, purposeful service, and worthy character. The National Honor Society of Secondary Schools was founded by the National Association of Secondary-School Principals in 1921. Today, there are over 8,500 chapters in the United States whose immediate objective has become that of raising the secondary schools to a higher plane. The society encourages the exploration and development of qualities of scholarship and leadership in students.

Students are tapped for membership in the Oscar W. Fary Chapter of the National Honor Society by Sue Sale of the John Marshall Chapter.

Integrity Our Goal

Precision, honesty, and uprightness combine to produce a George Wythe cadet with ideals and moral soundness for the future.

Individual capacities emerge to form a group of outstanding boys of which all are proud. Each strives to improve his school and works for the betterment of the George Wythe Cadet Corps. Competition, fair play, and patriotism all enter into a daily routine to which a cadet is devoted.

"Duty, honor, country"—the foundation for the building of a better cadet corps, better school, and a better understanding for future goals.

Sportsmanship Our Goal

In an appraisal of a school, especially in sports, sportsmanship plays an important part. In our first year, a precedent should be set to be admired and copied in years to come; our sportsmanship is one of our major concerns for future students of George Wythe.

We should be thankful for hard-earned victories, with respect for feelings of others and accept whatever results occur. Our teams do their best to bring another type of glory, that of the good sport. A good start in sportsmanship is a good start in sports.

Bulldogs Gain District-

On August 25, 1960, approximately eighty-seven boys assembled on the blacktop at the east end of school. Each boy was there with the same objective in mind, to be a member of George Wythe's first football team. After the hard summer practice only forty-two boys remained. These boys who were known as George Wythe's first football team possessed a spirit which would win them district-wide fame. Everyone in the district knew that Coach Leskovar's "hard-nosers" were not to be taken lightly.

Full of fight and determination, the J.V. basketball team, coached by Mr. John Waters, fought their way to a record of 8-11. The boys, lead by Co-captains Andy Coffey and Joe Tuck, gained much experience in preparation for the varsity basketball team; Andy Coffey was promoted to the varsity squad at mid-term and showed well his training as a J.V. player. The experience derived from participation in J.V. basketball will be invaluable to each boy as he progresses to the varsity basketball team in the near future.

Under the leadership of Coach Oscar Kuhn, George Wythe's first baseball team got off to a great start by winning their first three games. Almost dropping into the cellar, they went into a slump losing the next six consecutive games. This squad, showing Bulldog determination, fought back winning four out of the last six games and finishing with a 7-8 record.

No one individual had a sensational record; Bill Smiley, Garland Smith, and Donald Cole were standouts. Every boy on the squad was proud of being a member of the first baseball team in George Wythe's history.

The initial squad of the George Wythe Bulldog track team proved to be the "Cinderella team" of the school's first year as an athletic prowess in the Central District. Full of determination and fight, Coach Dick Ernsberger's "thinclads," from early January to the latter days of May, without a track, ran through snow, sleet, mud, up hills and splashed through water. Undeterred, this "team without stars" sped on to a 5-2 dual meet record, placing Wythe fourth among the Richmond Area high schools.

Although few girls were interested in field hockey, those who comprised the varsity team possessed high spirits. Lacking experience in the backfield positions, a ragged team took the field at the hockey clinic at Westhampton College in September. On their return to Westhampton in November for the hockey tournament, amazed officials viewed a team that had become more polished through hard practice and the desire to improve. Carolyn Coleman, co-captain, was chosen as center forward on the Tidewater Reserve team during this tournament.

Lady Bulldogs Display Teamwork,

Co-captains Lucky Godsey and Nancy Harris and Coach Nancy Wheeler discuss techniques of girls' basketball.

Over seventy-five girls signed up for tryouts for the girls' basketball team; when Coach Nancy Wheeler made the final cut, only twenty-three athletic-minded girls remained who comprised the varsity and J.V. teams. Although the teams lacked experience, school spirit and competitive spirit were high. The varsity team played six games, and were victorious in two, defeating John Marshall and Petersburg. Climaxing the season, the varsity girls participated in the basketball tournament, and Co-captains Lucky Godsey and Nancy Harris were elected as members of the first tournament team.

An experienced softball team took the field for the first time at George Wythe and immediately became recognized as one of the top teams. Five games were played; the girls, hard-hitting and confident, won four of them, losing only to Manchester. The final game against Petersburg was won by the Lady Bulldogs with a score of 29-1. The Hopewell game proved to be most exciting, going two extra innings before George Wythe emerged victorious. The Lady Bulldogs became the first girls' team at George Wythe to have a winning season.

School Spirit Our Goal

Enthusiastic loyalty to the school is the most important element to school spirit. Service to our school and willingness to work will bring strong feelings of unity within the school body. This year, more than any other year, it is important to build high standards and everlasting spirit. We must also strive to have enthusiasm, not only in sports, but in our studies and other school activities as well.

As the years roll on, we will find that our steadfast school spirit has lived with us and will ever live on.

Chancellors' Spirit Develops

Sponsors' Day brings the Cadet Corps out in full dress.

Judy Paulette endures the antics of Eleanor McJilton, Fred Forberg, and Jeanette Ellis as they try to catch the camera's eye.

Coach Leskovar presents trophies to the football players at the athletic assembly.

The STATESMAN staff makes preparations for first issue.

Miss Wheeler presents letters to the girls' hockey team at the athletic assembly.

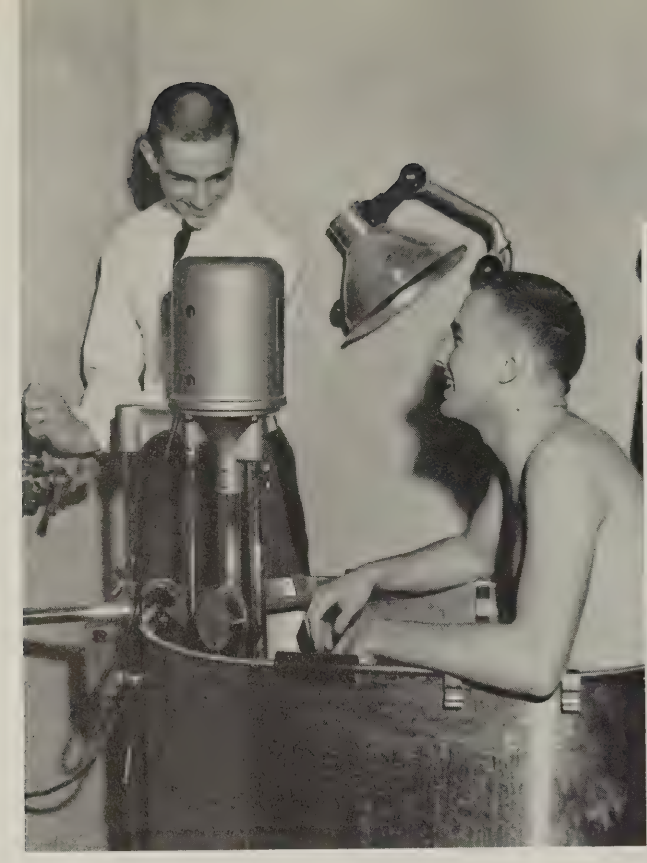
as Student Activities Proceed

Cheerleaders show spirit which helped them win the first place trophy at the Thalhimers Cheer Rally.

Joan Farrell, Martha Hayne, and Connie Godsey relax before starting class.

Charlene Moss, Brenda Boyce, Mrs. Norris, Harvey Margolis, Jean Hebert, and Nancye Roberson begin work on the first yearbook, THE CHANCELLOR.

Students enjoy first sock hop held after the T.J.-G.W. football game.



David Schneider assists Billy O'Brien in the whirl-pool.

Culminate First School Year

Betty Davis and Bennie Dyer await their turn to sign petitions for the WLEE Most Popular School Contest.

Deanna Tow and Spencer Murray enact a scene from the "Death of the Hired Man" presented at the One-Act Play Festival.

Linda Walters, Jean Hebert, and an unknown assistant work on scenery for the Junior-Senior.

Carolyn Adams discusses plans with fellow workers.

Bill Smiley helps prepare the scenery for the ceiling.

Junior Class Presents

Mrs. Rice directs the placing of tables and chairs.

On May 13, at 8 p.m., the Junior Class presented the first Junior-Senior Prom in the George Wythe gymnasium. For three days, the gym was off-bounds to the rest of the school while the juniors, advised by Mrs. Arlene Rice and Mr. Randy Cheatham, prepared the scenery for the occasion.

Saturday night, crossing a bridge covered with bamboo and pink blossoms, the guests began "A Night in Shangri-La."

Mr. Cheatham discusses with some juniors the plans for the ceiling decorations.

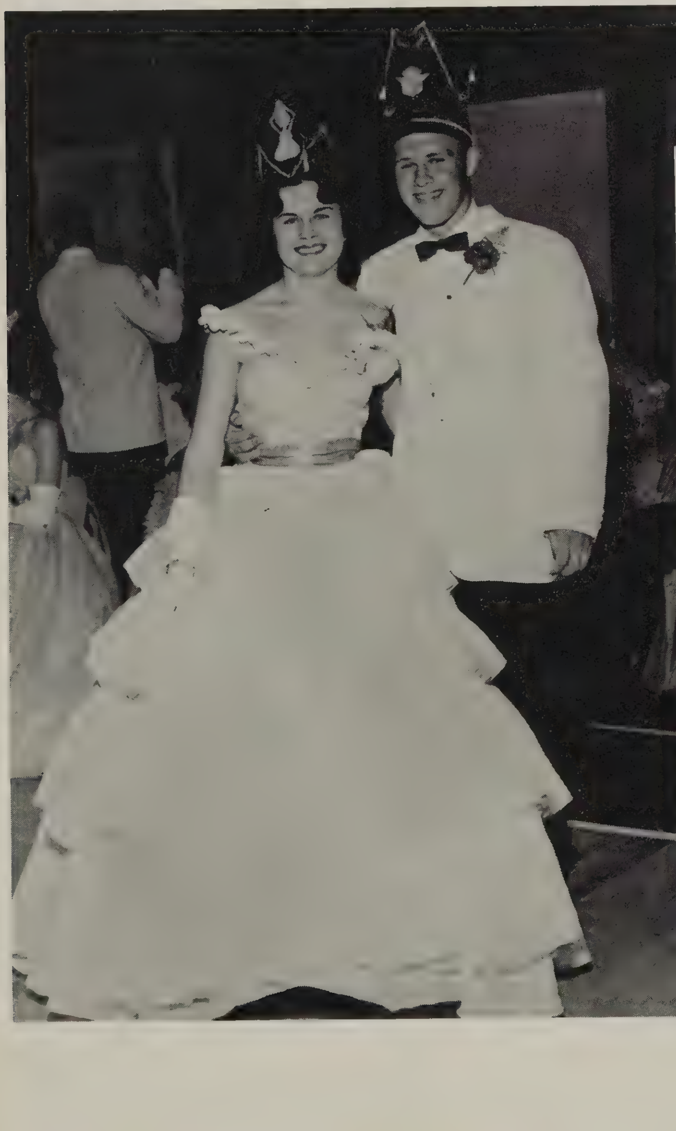
Jimmy Enroughty, Karen Hedgepath, and Pat Ragland put finishing touches on the oriental scene.

Dates greet friends between dances.

Couples dance to the music of Kenny Henderson and his band.

"A Night in Shangri-La"

The announcement of King Charles Reynolds and Queen Jo Ann Cropper highlights the evening.



Upperclassmen enjoy "A Night in Shangri-La."

Excitement,

Rev. A. J. Rosser from Webber Memorial Baptist Church speaks at the baccalaureate services, held Sunday, June 4, while the graduating students listen.

Expectation Crown Senior Week

Seniors file in during rehearsal at Dogwood Dell.

Mr. Schneider, Mr. Fary and Mr. Setien give a make-believe diploma to Shelby Davis in preparation for graduation services while Mrs. Ellwanger looks on.

Mrs. Ellwanger says "cheese" while Mrs. Norris laughs at the seniors' antics, and the photographer snaps the picture.

Teachers oppose seniors in heated competition.

Public Relations Our Goal

"United we stand, divided we fall" symbolizes the importance of good public relations. The school and the businesses are interwoven into a single unit with the same objective, a better community. The school needs the support of the community and its businesses in order to progress. For the first time in the history of South Richmond, the school and community are able to negotiate. Between the two a mutual respect is evolving, for one cannot exist without the other.

The Mark of a Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

THIS IS YOUR LIFE

It's a successful life! Step straight from high school into a good starting salary at Life of Virginia. There's opportunity galore here, too, in one of America's largest insurance companies. If it's a career you're looking for, free advancement training courses will also help you qualify for interesting, responsible, good-paying jobs higher up "on the ladder."

It's a happy life! You're welcomed into a friendly group of nearly 600 "Licovans" at our air-conditioned home office. Recreation programs include sports, picnics, parties. Make friends in an attractive, dollar-saving cafeteria. Short hours (8:30-4:30, no Saturdays), holidays and vacations give more time for outside fun.

It's a secure life! Retirement plans plus social security . . . a registered nurse on full-time duty . . . life, medical, disability insurance. To make this good life your life, write or drop by our Personnel Division, Life of Virginia Building . . . overlooking Capitol Square.

Hills

I never loved your plains!—
  Your gentle valleys,
Your drowsy country lanes
  And pleached alleys.

I want my hills!—the trail
  That scorns the hollow.
Up, up the ragged shale
  Where few will follow,

Up, over wooded crest
  And mossy boulder
With strong thigh, heaving chest,
  And swinging shoulder,

So let me hold my way,
  By nothing halted,
Until, at close of day,
  I stand, exalted,

High on my hills of dream—
  Dear hills that know me!
And then, how fair will seem
  The lands below me.

How pure, at vesper-time,
  The far bells chiming!
God, give me hills to climb,
  And strength for climbing!
